

E-Mail Addresses As Public Records

Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity. Instead, contact this office by phone or in writing.

Section 668.6076, F.S.

The screenshot shows the website for the Florida Attorney General, specifically the Privacy Policy page. The header includes the Florida Attorney General's name and the text "Attorney General McCollum - Transition Site". The main content of the page is the Privacy Policy, which states that the website does not record or store personal information like e-mail addresses. It also provides contact information for questions about the policy.

Florida Attorney General
Attorney General McCollum - Transition Site

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting the Florida Attorney General's website. Your privacy is very important to us. When you visit our website, the Web server automatically recognizes only the Internet domain and IP address from which you accessed the site, but does not record this information or otherwise result in the identification of your personal e-mail address or other personal information. This site does not use cookies.

If you choose to provide information in a feedback form, conference registration form or other form on this site, unless specifically exempted by Florida Statutes, such information is a public record under Florida's Government in the Sunshine Laws and available for public inspection upon demand.

Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public-records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity. Instead, contact this office by phone or in writing.

If you have other questions about our website's privacy policies, please contact us at 850-414-3990.

Florida Attorney
General
Programs and
Units
Consumer
Protection
Consumer
Aids
En Español
News Releases
Citizen Safety
Citizen Safety
Center
Civil Protection
Civil Victims
Services
AG Opinions
Sunshine Law
Advanced
Searches
Annual Reports
Government Links