101 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of Trailer Estates Park & Recreation District that no unlawful discrimination exists towards applicants or employees (see sections 800 Harassment and 900 Employee Complaint Procedure). Likewise, there is no unlawful discrimination in the application of any Trailer Estates Park & Recreation policy, practice, rule or regulation.

All applicants and employees, regardless of race, religion, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, marital status, political affiliation, or physical disability are tested on the same basis with respect to employment, promotion and promotional opportunities, performance ratings, training courses and programs and all other aspects of employment with the Trailer Estates Park & Recreation District.

The Trailer Estates Park & Recreation District may also be referred to in this policy as Trailer Estates.

102 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS, INTERVIEW AND SELECTION

102.1 Regular Employment (Non-Temporary)

Applicants for employment apply in person or in writing to Trailer Estates Park & Recreation District. Applications and resumes received by employees of the Trailer Estates Park & Recreation District will be sent directly to the Board of Trustees or designee. Applications will remain active (reviewed to be considered for future openings) for six (6) months from submission date.

After deadline for submitting applications, the Board of Trustees and/or personnel reporting to the Board of Trustees will screen all applications. Screening is based upon the minimum criteria established by the current job description for the specific opening. The department supervisor and Board of Trustees will interview the applications of two (2), but no more than five (5), of the best-qualified applicants. The department supervisor makes a hiring decision subject to approval of the Board of Trustees or designee.

The Board of Trustees or designee will be responsible for verifying professional and personal references and academic record (if necessary).

Former employees, who left in good standing, are eligible to apply for re-employment, subject to the same qualifications as other applicants.

Definition of full time and part time employees:

Full time employees shall be defined as those who are scheduled to work eighty (80) Hours or more during each two (2) week pay period during the year.

Part time employees shall be defined as those who are scheduled to work at least forty (40) Hours, but less than eighty (80) hours, each two (2) week pay period during the year.

Contractors are hired for a specific task or time.

102.2 Temporary Employment

Positions established for short-term purposes of less than six (6) months duration are considered temporary. All employment procedures described in this section apply to employees hired in positions considered temporary (hourly pay with no benefits) unless an exception is made by Trailer Estates to directly hire a qualified candidate, waiving advertising, in order to fill the position promptly.

102.3 Employment of Relatives

Relatives of Trailer Estates employees may be employed by Trailer Estates provided they are in separate departments and there is no overlap of responsibility or supervision. Trailer Estates Trustees will approve all such hires unless it involves his/her relatives and if that circumstance arises the other Trustees will approve/disapprove.

102.4 Probationary Period

The first six (6) months of employment serve as a probationary period for employees filling regular full time and part time positions and are used to:

- (a) Provide an adjustment period for an employee to become familiar with his/her job position.
- (b) Provide on-the-job instruction, guidance and counseling.
- (c) Observe and evaluate employee job performance.

Vacation and sick pay will be accrued during the probationary period; however, it may not be used until after completion of the probationary period. If employment is terminated during the probationary period, no vacation leave, sick leave, or other benefits shall be due or paid.

A department director or supervisor may recommend an extension of the probationary period for up to three (3) additional months, if at the end of the initial six (6) months probationary period it cannot be determined whether or not the probationary period should end. Trailer Estates Trustees must concur.

Employee status during the extended period is the same as during the initial period. However, once an employee has completed six (6) months continuous service, he/she can use accrued sick or vacation hours subject to normal approval process.

Employees promoted or transferred to a different classification shall serve a three (3) month probationary period. This period may be waived or extended for cause based upon request of the supervisor and concurrence of the Board of Trustees.

Trailer Estates Board of Trustees or designee pre-approved overtime/comp time for employees except as provided in sub-paragraphs 303.1 and 303.2 Individual supervisors administer overtime/comp time through the daily time sheet system.
